Veterans Court Mentor Program

Volunteer Veteran Mentors establish supportive relationships with Court participants.

As advocates and allies, volunteer mentors coach, guide and act as role models for Veterans. Volunteer mentors may help with readjustment issues, including anger management, impulse control, conflict resolution skills and other issues that create a difficult reentry into civilian life.

Volunteer mentors may assist the Veteran to navigate through treatment, the Veterans Court and the U.S. Department of Veteran's Affairs system, but they do not assume the role of attorneys or treatment providers.

If you're a Veteran who wishes to serve as a mentor, please visit www.co.westmoreland.pa.us/VeteransCourt for information.
