

Westmoreland County Firemen's Association
ESSAY CONTEST

Rules & Regulations

This contest is open to Westmoreland County students in the sixth and seventh grades of public, parochial and private schools within Westmoreland County.

Rules – Read Carefully

- The essay must be about “Fire Prevention” or “Fire Safety”
- Two pages typed, along with a cover sheet
- The entry blank below must be completed and affixed by one staple to the back of the essay
- All entries will become property of the Westmoreland County Firemen's Association.
- All entries must be mailed by December 8, 2020 to Ken Miller, 416 Walnut St., Latrobe, PA 15650

Judging

The entries should be submitted by the teacher of each classroom for final judging. Judging will be on the length of the essay, content, grammar and neatness. However, if the teacher is unable to prejudge the essays for submission, the Fire Prevention Committee will select the entries to be submitted for final judging. Final judging will be done by the Fire Prevention Committee, on January 8, 2021, only, at Latrobe Hose Company #5. Essays must be sent to Ken Miller, 416 Walnut St., Latrobe, PA 15650.

Awards

The best judged five (5) entries from each grade will receive prizes. Total prizes valued up to $2,500 will be awarded to the best judged entries.

Recognition

All winners will be recognized and prizes awarded at the Westmoreland County Firemen's Association monthly meeting to be held:

March 12, 2021 - 7pm (sharp) at Youngwood Volunteer Fire Department, Youngwood, PA
