2017 ACKNOWLEDGMENT

On September 1, 2016, the Pennsylvania Supreme Court rescinded existing state Orphans' Court Rules, replacing them with new rules which became effective that same date. Judicial districts were directed to review their local rules and submit any necessary proposed local rules for review by the Pennsylvania Orphans' Court Procedural Rules Committee. The new rules standardized filing practices, and modeled orphans' court proceedings with general civil practice, where it was beneficial to do so.

Thanks and credit for their contributions to the 2017 local Orphans' Court Rules is hereby extended to the following:

Richard E. McCormick, Jr., President Judge and Orphans' Court Judge
Anthony G. Marsili, Orphans' Court Judge
Chris Scherer, Orphans' Court Judge

The memorandum of principal terms agreed upon, or the statement of no resolution, shall be filed with the court.
- (g) The interested parties may request that the court approve the final mediated agreement, which embodies the principal terms agreed upon in the memorandum referenced above. The court may grant approval in an order or decree. Alternatively, the court may recommend any changes that the court deems appropriate for approval. No. 2039(b)(1) provides that the court may (but is not obligated to) release the proceeds directly to "the guardian of the person or to the natural guardian or to the person or agency by whom the minor is maintained or to the minor."
3. If there is no court-appointed guardian of the estate and the amount is more than $25,000, Pa.R.C.P. No. 2039(b)(2) requires that the proceeds be deposited in a federally insured savings account in the minor's name with a stipulation that no withdrawals can be made until the child reaches the age of eighteen (18) except upon prior order of court.
4. The order must include a provision that proof of the sequestered account shall be promptly filed of record.

EXPLANATORY COMMENTS: Despite the discretionary language contained Pa.R.C.P. No. 2039(b)(1), the court generally does not release the proceeds directly to the minor or guardian. Except in cases involving extremely small damages or unique circumstances, the court routinely requires that the funds be deposited in a federally insured savings account in the minor's name with a stipulation that no withdrawals can be made until the child reaches the age of eighteen (18) except upon prior order of court.

EXPLANATORY COMMENTS: Records essential to the court's decision on an application on behalf of a mentally incapacitated woman should be obtained through written consent of her guardian ad litem. This rule is of particular importance in cases where a medical practitioner or family member seeks authority to consent to an abortion as the guardian of the pregnant woman. Section 106 of the Mental Health Procedures Act, 50 P.S. § 7106, provides that medical records related to proceedings under the Mental Health Procedures Act may not be released without the signed authorization of the patient and that, in no case, may confidential communications between the patient and doctor, resulting from any proceedings under the Mental Health Procedures Act, be released.

RULE W016.13 MEDICAL TESTIMONY

- (a) It is presumed that the testimony of physicians, psychologists and other medical professionals may be taken in the courtroom by speaker telephone in all proceedings conducted in accordance with these rules and pursuant to 18 Pa.C.S. § 3206(c), unless objections are filed and upheld by the court prior to the hearing.
- (b) Telephone testimony shall be limited to medical, psychological and other medical personnel who can provide information relevant to the emotional development, maturity, intellect and understanding of the applicant; the fact and duration of the applicant's pregnancy; the nature, possible consequences, and alternatives to abortion; and any other relevant evidence which the court may find useful in making a determination about the applicant's ability to give informed consent pursuant to 18 Pa.C.S. § 3205 or an allegation that the abortion is in the best interests of the applicant.
- (c) All documents in a foreign language shall be translated into English. The translation shall be typed and a certificate of accurate translation shall be attached.

RULE W016.14 TESTIMONY OF APPLICANT'S PARENTS

A record of all proceedings before the court upon an application shall be made as a matter of course, and shall be transcribed, insofar as is practicable and necessary to meet the requirements for a prompt appeal, on the same day as the proceeding is conducted.

EXPLANATORY COMMENTS: An applicant for judicial consent to an abortion is entitled to an appeal directly to the Pennsylvania Superior Court after an adverse decision rendered by the Court of Common Pleas. The appeal must be heard within five (5) days. Other time constraints related to gestational age of the fetus may make it imperative that a transcript be prepared expeditiously.

The Pennsylvania Rules of Appellate Procedure, Rule No. 3804, requires that the court reporter, without charge to the applicant, transcribe the notes of testimony and deliver them to the Clerk of the Orphans' Court by 5:00 o'clock P.M. on the business day following receipt of the notice of appeal to the Superior Court.
